Description

It is expected that at the end of March there will be greater clarity concerning the start of the UP/UPC system with regard to the leave of the United Kingdom from the European Community (Brexit) and the decision of the German Constitutional Court on the question of the admissibility of the UP/UPC system in view of the German constitution. Therefore, the seminar will deal with the consequences resulting from these developments. Afterwards, there will be sufficient time for Q&A. In addition, the seminar will address an important tool of proceeding against EP patents of competitors as a whole (opposition procedure)."

Target Group

Patent administrators

Lecturer

Mr. Rainer Fritsche [ Eisenführ, Speiser & Partner (München) ]
European Patent Attorney,
European Trade Mark and Design Attorney, Patent Attorney (Germany)

Rainer Fritsche has special experience in patent infringement proceedings, patent revocation proceedings and in drafting and defending national, European and international patents and designs before the competent authorities and courts. In addition to his patent attorney work, Rainer Fritsche is also an assessor in the senate for patent attorney matters at the Federal Supreme Court.
